

Good Impressions Audio Books is a team of professionals with more than 60 years combined experience in media and audio and video production. One member is a New York Times best selling author who has several audio books. This means we have a great deal of expertise in making your audio book sound as good as possible without you spending many exhausting hours in expensive recording studios and on their schedule.

We are skilled with state-of-the-art recording equipment we have modified and special customized editing software that gives us a substantial edge in “post production.” We have a strong working knowledge of professional audio tools to clean up mistakes and to improve and enhance the sound of your audio book.

We are audio book producers and we also offer a web hosting site where you can sell your audio book without having to spend all the time and money to develop a website and go through the many hoops and expense to set up a shopping cart and the means to accept credit card payments from buyers. It can become the platform you need if you later decide to print your book. On our website you receive the vast majority of the sales revenue after Paypal expenses. Many websites keep at least 50%. As we add more audio books an increasing number of potential buyers will be exposed to your audio book. Perhaps most important, with Good Impressions, you keep all your rights.
